

Development of Oral Skills

Are you a Chinese Second Language learner and

- Going into Year 10 or Year 11 Chinese in 2011?
- Worried about the orals already?
- Wish your spoken Chinese sounded more Chinese?

Here's a way to make a really good start on improving your pronunciation, tones and fluency!

The Chinese Teacher Training Centre (CTTC) is offering oral skill development sessions just before school begins. Come to both, or just one.

PROGRAM SCHEDULE:

WEDNESDAY 19 and THURSDAY 20 JANUARY 2011

Date	Wednesday 18th January, 9.30am - 12.45pm Thursday 19th January, 9.30am - 12.45pm
Place	The University of Melbourne, Parkville campus Room to be advised.
What to Expect	The sessions will provide: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Information about how Chinese sounds work, especially in actual speech. • Oral skill exercises to help you investigate tone, rhythm and intonation in Chinese. • Speaking activities using models from Chinese teenager TV series. • No more than 15 minutes listening to teacher talk! • Practical game-like speaking exercises which allow you to get control of the elements of your Chinese speech. • Getting it all together by performing realistic interactions from integrated audiovisual models. • Small group, close individual attention.
